INVOCATION, PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Chair Holt called the meeting to order at 4:48 p.m. at Tri – Eagle Sales. She thanked the staff for all they do.

Mrs. Jackson thanked all for coming.

Dr. Alvin Jackson, Jr., facilitator did introductions. He said he had been in government for 35 years and it started in Eatonville, Florida. He said he enjoyed the last session they had and they would continue their discussion on Economic Development. He shared how Eatonville had capitalized their market by showcasing and sharing with the world the Zora Neale Hurston Festival of the Arts and Humanities which was a literary festival with 1.5 million visitors that have attended and would celebrate its 29th year next month. He said she was known as one of the greatest literary voices of the Harlem Renaissance and this festival celebrated her work and she grew up in Eatonville. He further stated the festival lifted the entire community.

He then gave a review of the last time they met. He discussed how they work through public policy and gave a handout on how to be an Effective Board Member.
